Dear Dan:

The following actions are being taken in connection with the recent Government property survey, and cover generally all of the items discussed in the numbered Schedules listed in the Auditor General's letter of 6 December 1957.

1. We will take a complete physical inventory of all Government property in the division by MJO and reconcile it with Government property cards.
2. We are formulating and publishing complete division Government property procedures to cover the following:
 - a. Contractor identification of property schedule 4
 - b. Cycle, termination and completion inventories
 - c. Recording, transport, storage, disposition and/or transfer of government property
 - 7* d. Design and definition of record cards, removal passes, et cetera schedule 6
 - 7* e. Tagging procedures schedule 4
 - 7* f. Review of all releases for propriety of the Government property designation schedule 1
 - 7* g. Follow-up to insure equipment removed from the contractor's facility is returned, or disposition reported for appropriate action. schedule 6
3. We will remove all accountable records from the control of individuals who have access to Government property schedule 8
